Help Your Hydrometer Do Its Job... Calibrate It!

by Brant Burgiss

The dandelions are starting to bloom, so it must be springtime... Happy April everyone! We hope everyone has a great growing season with no late frosts or other severe weather like high winds, torrential rain, or hail. Let's all have a great harvest for 2008. We hope your vintage is the best ever!

Isn't it ironic that an instrument as practical and inexpensive as a hydrometer can make or break your batch of wine before the yeast is even pitched? If you've ever had to fight the battle of an inaccurate hydrometer, you know the story too well... either your must has more sugar in it that you think, or less than you bargained for. Why not take a proactive stance and calibrate your hydrometer to ensure its accuracy?

Subscribers to WineMaker Magazine probably noticed an excellent article in the Dec 07 / Jan 08 issue written by Chris Colby about winemaking equipment calibration. It was very well written with easy to understand instructions and diagrams, and it is well worth the time to read.

We recently came across another great article on the web, written by Stanley Prevost, which explains in detail how to make a salt solution to help calibrate your hydrometer. Read the steps to calibrate your hydrometer.

Both articles stress the importance of using a two point calibration method (rather than using water alone) to determine whether your hydrometer is accurately depicting the specific gravity of your must.

We hope this info will help your wine "measure up". Until next month...

Important Announcement

WineMaker Magazine Sonoma Seminar Sold Out

If you were thinking of signing up for what promises to be the best winemaking conference for home winemakers and those who aspire to go pro one day, we hope you signed up when we first recommended it to you... because the seminar SOLD OUT in about 3 weeks!

Publisher Brad Ring and Kiev Rattee of WineMaker Magazine report that there are now over 100 people on the waiting list to get in, even though the hotel that hosts the seminar is the largest convention site in all of Sonoma.

Did you sign up in time? If so, Paul and Brant hope to see you out there!

Hot Tip

Keep Your Crushed Grapes Wet

If you are making a wine that comes with a crushed grape pack, remember to punch down your grapes a couple of times a day to keep the grapes wet. This helps prevent bacterial growth that can spoil your wine.

Give Your Carboy A Lift - Your Back Will Thank You

by Tom Burgiss

Accompanying this article you see a series of 3 photos of our newest carboy lifter designed to eliminate all ailing backs. It was developed by an engineer whose family makes homemade wine. The features were refined during the making of a series of prototype models, making improvements each time. Now this final model is offered to you, the home winemaker!

The carboy lifter is very practical... Allow me to describe it for you. Right away, you will notice its mobility - it can roll anywhere within your space with NO electrical cord dragging along - It contains its own rechargeable power source! It is constructed of metal, made from both steel and an aluminum-type alloy.

Ready To Lift?

Carboy Loaded

We Have Lift Off

The lift lowers all the way to floor level so you can easily ROLL a full carboy onto the platform. From there, the extra strong battery-powered electric winch effortlessly raises a loaded carboy to the level of your work bench or counter. For safety, the wheels can be locked when loading/unloading. Simply roll the carboy out onto the bench or counter for the next step. The carboy lifter allows everyone an equal opportunity to make wine!

Engineered and manufactured in the United States, the carboy lifter comes completely assembled for you. Available for $1,995, it's a bargain, especially since it could save you a visit to the hospital or emergency room with a back strain!!

Please allow 6 weeks for manufacture and delivery - The perfect gift for Father's Day!

See you next time... Tom

Customer Feedback

Hi,
I have never seen such beautiful packaging. Every possible opening on the large box was taped, and the top and bottom were stapled. There was enough "peanuts" in the box to float a destroyer. I will not hesitate to order from grapestompers again... Tell the warehousemen/women they should be commended for their work. Thanks again.

Pam
Thank you so much for taking care of this order for me... You are always one at the top of my list whenever possible. We have a winery in Colorado and need [supplies] ASAP.

You are a gem as always - and that Valpolicella I ordered from you and made is wonderful!

Nancy Byers

Tom,
Thank you for the incredibly fast delivery of the screw caps! Should anyone in the future ask whether these caps will work with recycled French screw-top burgundy bottles, my answer would be "no." While the diameter seemed very close (the cap may be just a hair larger diameter than you would expect for these bottles, but it is certainly close), the thread pitch is different and they will not go on the bottles. It was worth a shot, since I had a dozen matching bottles all cleaned up and ready to use, but no go.

Thank you, again and as always, for your great communication and service.

Corky's Corner

Winemaking Definition

Pymnt

Honey and grape juice fermented together. This can be either a fermented combination (like a melomel) or grape wine to which honey is added after it is finished wine.

Look for other wine-related definitions by viewing our online Glossary at www.grapestompers.com/glossary.asp

Pump Up Your Dandelion Wine

Dandelions make a great light wine, but if you want to give it some more body, add some golden raisins, figs, dates, or apricots (about a pound per gallon of wine made).

Remember, you can freeze the flowers until you have enough to make a batch.

One More Glass...

Those of you who ordered and made the Orange Chocolate Port from RJ Spagnols can probably give it a taste now, even though it is still young. It will convince you just how smart you were to make it! Our word to you is: ENJOY it slowly and share it only with your closest friends.

Many of you have received the RQ's from Spagnols and Limited Releases from Cellar Craft, along with the Appellation Series from Heron Bay. However, we are still waiting patiently on the last two to come in so we can ship them to you. They are: Spagnols RQ 508 Argentina Tannat Merlot and Cellar Craft's GSM (Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvedre). Heron Bay's Toro will go out the first week of April. So that brings you up to date on our special orders.

We have received samples of and are in the process of making two new dessert wines so we can better inform you: Orchard Breezin's Pomegranate / Zinfandel # 3204 and Sangria with Seville Orange # 3202. Look for them to be on our web site by May 1st. Back with us now is stock # 3205 Pink Grapefruit / White Shiraz. This represents a change in the base grape from White Zinfandel to the White Shiraz. We are currently testing this new flavor combination and will let you know our thoughts.

The information above illustrates how much we pride ourselves on providing honest feedback based upon our testing. We will only recommend the best products to you, our customers. Thanks for your confidence and business from all of us here at grapestompers. Tom

Wine Drops

Wine Drops is a catch-all for various tidbits that we find interesting. This month, we offer a couple of interesting wine links and a free trial offer from WineMaker magazine.

Move Over Napa Valley, The Wines From North Carolina Are Racing In

In a recent "TODAY" show segment that aired on March 27, supermarket guru Phil Lempert said that the best new wines are coming from NC. It's a good thing, since scientists predict that global warming will drastically affect California's grape production by the end of this century.

Visit these web sites to read the story and see the video from the Today show.

Expect To Pay More For Aussie Wines in 2008

Don't be surprised if the next bottle of wine from Down Under costs more than it used to, thanks in large part to the recent drought suffered there.

Read the full article online.

For California's Big Reds, Some Say Less Is More

There's an active debate going on about red wines in the Napa Valley these days... Just how much alcohol is too much, and can a lower alcoholic content actually be more desirable?
