A Tale of a Bar: Building at Falderal Winery

By Paul Kovacich

In the process of prepping the new winery and shop in Hendersonville, NC I decided I would need to build a bar / countertop as well as a wine rack. Now, I'm not a carpenter. I began this project with little cash and less experience. So to relieve my budget and own worries, I decided to combine both projects into one!

Starting with 2x4s and 3/4 inch plywood, I built a simple countertop with six legs. The two inner legs serve as support for both the top and the box that will house the wine rack. The box was cut from the front panel of the bar. Extra wood was used to fabricate the sides.

I found an old garden trellis that made a perfect façade for the wine rack. 1 inch wood slats were used to construct the actual rack. Here's a picture of my girlfriend Julia lining up each slat with the façade. Making sure the rack fit into the box and lined up with the façade was a slow and painful process. (continued on pg. 4)

Important Announcement

2nd Annual Home Winemaker Showcase

By Pam Wyatt

Don't forget to mark your calendar now for our Home Winemaker Showcase!

Due to some conflicts with other wine festivals in our area, we have decided to hold our event this year on Sunday, May 30. As last year, the times for our Winemaker Showcase will be from 12 noon to 4 pm and there is NO CHARGE to participate.

You must pre-register PRIOR TO Friday, May 28 in order to reserve your space. We need your name and the wines you are bringing otherwise you cannot enter your wines on the day of the Showcase.

We plan to have local craft vendors, food available for sale, plus $1,000 in Grapestompers gift certificates and ribbons will be awarded. You can enter as many different wines as you like as long as you have someone to pour for each wine!

We will offer a 10% discount off all winemaking supplies to participants when you place your order in advance and pick up on Showcase day.

So mark your calendars for Sunday, May 30 and plan to join us either as a winemaker or taster. For more information or to register, please call us toll-free at 800-233-1505, Monday-Friday from 9am-5pm. You can also register by emailing tom@grapestompers.com.

Hot Tip

Speaking of "Ice" Wine

What foods pair well with Ice Wine? Cheeses, desserts, coffees, chocolate, members of the squash family, spicy or peppery foods such as curries, stir-fried and Thai food.

Submit your hot winemaking tip here: www.grapestompers.com/submit\_ideas.asp

Snow, ice, frigid cold weather, high winds, no electricity... not normal days... but what fun!

If your package shipped from grapestompers has been subjected to extreme conditions during its travel to your location, you may have observed the grape juice concentrate was FROZEN! This may seem like a major issue, but not to worry, I have the answer to your problem.

Place the bag of concentrate inside your home allow it to warm up slowly and it will return to its original state. Also remove the yeast and the clarifier and allow both to reach room temperature. You may rehydrate the yeast in warm water and then add to your must. If the clarifier is also frozen simply allow it to reach room temperature as you did the yeast.

Our men in the warehouse, James and Mitchell, always surround the orders with packing that provides both insulation and protection from damage. During cold weather, the concentrate liquid will ALWAYS be cool to the touch, so remember, add hot water to bring up the temperature of the entire must! As always, we invite you to pick up the phone and dial 1-800-233-1505 for any additional help that you might need (hint: the best time to call is in the afternoons, between 3 and 4:30 pm).

I want to talk to you a bit now about our upcoming Home Winemakers Showcase. We have changed the date this year to Sunday, May 30 due to some other wine festivals scheduled on Saturday and to allow travel back and forth during the Memorial Day holiday.

Let's review some of the advantages of your attendance;

- 1) You get to showcase your wine making capabilities in a people's choice competition and you MAY win gift certificates (OVER $1,000 WORTH will be awarded) and ribbons!
- 2) You will be networking with your fellow home winemakers
- 3) You will get to participate in workshops on home wine making
- 4) We will cover reports and reviews of the 3rd annual Winemaking Conference sponsored by Winemaker Magazine, held in the state of Washington this year and attended by myself and my son, Brant
- 5) This year, we are suggesting a swap shop*** of any equipment you may not need with an opportunity to improve your own needs
- 6) 10 PERCENT OFF EVERY PURCHASE ON THE SHOW DATE

*** Swap shop; there is no fee because you will do your own pricing of your equipment to sell or trade for something else. You can pass along items that you no longer need and get ones that you do. It is an excellent opportunity for a first time winemaker, to start their own collection of equipment and supplies.

Some items sold and traded last year were an electric wine chiller, 3, 5 and 6 gallon carboys and carboy handles.

Last year's festival brought folks from far and wide, the farthest being from Louisiana! I am excited about this festival because it is the only one of its kind, ONLY for showcasing the Home Winemakers!

The Home Winemaker Showcase will be held rain or shine; we can even move inside if necessary.

So mark your calendar NOW for Sunday, May 30 and don't forget, this year you must register with us prior to May 28 in order to participate. We will have food, music and fun for all so bring your friends and neighbors and enjoy, meet new folks and share the day with old friends!

Later, Tom

Winemaking Definition

Capsule:

A plastic or foil dressing that covers the top of the cork and partway down the neck of the wine bottle. Purely decorative, they do not extend or impair wine aging in any way.

Look for other wine-related definitions by viewing our online Glossary at www.grapestompers.com/glossary.asp

Quick Chilling

Fill a bucket 3/4 full of ice mixed with water. Bury the bottle of wine in the ice mixture for 30 minutes.

Chilling in a refrigerator would take the same bottle of wine up to 3 hours to reach the recommended serving temperature.

Using two layers of slats, I constructed a lattice pattern that would allow for maximum support with the least amount of cutting and modifying. Using clamps and a lot of wire, I would eventually construct a second lattice to complete the rack. It would now snugly fit about thirty eight bottles.

Here's how the whole outfit looks together. I left the top unfinished for now. I haven't found a nice finish for the top that doesn't break the bank. So if anyone has any suggestions, please email paul@grapestompers.com.

A couple of coats of stain and it's ready for final assembly! I built a second bar without a wine rack to accommodate shelves. Once joined together, they create a 16 foot partition in the shop. Plenty of room for tastings, a register, or storage. So if you want to see the final product, you'll have to come by and see me when we open in March! Until then, Happy Winemaking... and Carpentry!

Later, Paul

Well you finally made it to our Hidden Special. This month we are offering 30 free PVC shrink wrap capsules every time you purchase a concentrate kit. This means that if you purchase one kit, you receive 30 and if you purchase two kits you receive 60 and so on and so on. There is one catch, you have to pick out the ones that you would like and give us a stock code number in the comments section of the order form. You also must mention the Hidden Special in order to receive the deal. We will not automatically include free capsules when you place your order so be sure and let us know that you are reading the Stomper and say "Give me the Hidden Special".

Wine Drops

Wine Drops is a catch-all for various tidbits that we find interesting. This month we had very interesting customer tip, a link for an informative winemaking site, a link for a free issue of Winemaker Magazine and a chance to tell us what you would like to see next month.

We recently received this fine tip from Richard Lauhead of St. Paul, MN and decided to pass it on to Stomper readers, "When doing your final racking, you are left with a couple of cups or so of lees in the bottom of your carboy which are usually just discarded. However if you put that mixture of lees and wine in a 16 oz. disposable water or soda bottle and cap it and let it sit for a couple of weeks, you can often recover a couple of glasses of fine wine. Works for me." And to the rest of you, keep the tips and tricks coming.

Check out this neat winemaking link that we found <http://www.wineadds.com/>. Here you can find wine additions charts, conversion charts, brix adjustments and much, much more. It will even help you determine if you have a stuck fermentation and what to do about it.

Weatherwane Winery in Lexington, NC owned and operated by Sid and Miranda Proctor recently announced a new wine, Stormy Passion. This is their new pomegranate wine and as you know, pomegranate is all the rage now so if you are planning to visit Lexington, stop by Weatherwane Winery and give their newest addition a try. Check out their web site here www.weatherwanewinery.com.
